

SUSAN CONSTANT

GOODSPEED

DISCOVERY

Colonial Virginia

Written for The Times-Dispatch in Commemoration of the Three-hundredth Anniversary of the Settlement of Jamestown,

By DR. J. A. C. CHANDLER and DR. T. B. THAMES

This book covers the most interesting period of history of the English-speaking people in the Western World. It is full of romance and mighty deeds. The Colonial period of American history has always been fascinating to the student and is filled with deeds that grip the imagination.

The story opens with a chapter on the lost Colony of Roanoke Island, one of the fearful tragedies of history, and relates in most graphic style the great drama of early colonization and Western civilization, with its background of England, of the great Elizabeth and Raleigh and James and scenes with John Smith, Powhatan, Pocahontas, John Rolfe, Dale, Yeardley, Berkeley, Bacon, Dunmore, Henry, Jefferson and Washington.

CHAPTERS:

Lost Colony of Roanoke Island.
A Great Trust—The London Company.
Reasons for Colonization.
John Smith, the Hero of Jamestown.
The Land of Powhatan and His People.
Pocahontas, the Heroine of Jamestown.
The Travail of the Nation.

The Beginnings of Education in Virginia.
The Labor of Colonial Virginia.
The First American Legislative Assembly and Its Significance.
Tobacco.
Home-Building in the Seventeenth Century.
Massacre and Revenge.

Planting the Church in the Wilderness.
Virginia Under Charles I. and Cromwell.
Bacon's Rebellion.
The Passing of Jamestown and Rise of Williamsburg.
An Infant Nation's Industries.
Politics in Virginia.

The Colonial Gentleman.
The Westward Movement—1716-1774.
The Settlers of the Frontier.
Patrick Henry, Virginia's Great Commoner.
Thomas Jefferson.
George Washington, the Sword of the Revolution.

The narrative will appeal to Virginians. Every one should be familiar with the glorious achievements of Colonial days, and the book should be made a part of the history course in every school in Virginia. It is printed from clear plates, in large type, embellished with numerous half-tones in sepia, and a frontispiece in color of Pocahontas, made by Mr. William L. Sheppard from the original at Booton Rectory, Norfolk, England. The cover design is very artistic. The story is told in twenty-five chapters and 388 pages. For a present it is most appropriate and is on sale at The Bell Book & Stationery Co., 914 E. Main St.; Hunter & Co., 629 E. Broad St.; Miller & Rhoads and Presbyterian Committee of Publication, or it will be sent postpaid for $1.50 by

The Times-Dispatch Co.,

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA